Fresno County Public Library Names New Public Information Officer

The Fresno County Public Library is pleased to announce the appointment of Jonathan Waltmire to the position of Public Information Officer (PIO). Mr. Waltmire, a long-time employee of the Library will assume his new duties beginning December 23.

Waltmire, a native of Selma, CA, has been employed for Fresno County Public Library for 10 years, and has previously worked at the Selma and Reedley branch libraries. Waltmire brings many years of working with the public promoting library services and programs, in addition to working with Friends of the Library Groups and local schools. "As a native of the San Joaquin Valley, I am excited to serve the community for the Fresno County Public Library, helping residents meet their information needs" remarked Waltmire.

Fresno County Public Library provides services to 35 branches throughout Fresno County in addition to the Community Bookmobile and the Apprendo Van.
