WHAT: Fresno County Public Library to Kickoff California Reads Initiative “War Comes Home” at Fresno Pacific University.

WHEN: Wednesday, September 24, 2014, 4 pm

WHERE: Hiebert Library, Fresno Pacific University

DETAILS: Fresno County Public Library is pleased to join the California Reads initiative to present “War Comes Home.” This program brings Californians together to explore important topics through reading and discussion featuring the book What It Is Like to Go to War by Karl Malantes. Fresno County Public Library will hold a kickoff event Sept. 24 at 4 pm at Fresno Pacific University’s Hiebert Library where free copies of the book will be given to the first 50 people to attend. “We are proud to participate with California Reads in bringing Fresno County residents together to discuss the issues of war and the effects on our soldiers and their families” said Fresno County Public Librarian Laurel Prysiazny, “People can come together to share their views regarding war and participate in many of the planned events.” To find out more information regarding “War Comes Home” events, please visit www.fresnolibrary.org.
