WHAT: Fresno County Public Library to Host Veterans Day Celebration

WHEN: Saturday, November 8, 2014
11:00 am-1:00 PM

WHERE: All Fresno County Public Library branches, except Big Creek Branch Library, Talking Book Library for the Blind and the Senior Resource Center Library.

DETAILS: Fresno County Public Library (FCPL), in partnership with Cal Humanities, is pleased to invite the public to a Veterans Day "Welcome Home" celebration at most library branches on Saturday, November 8 from 11am to 1pm. Everyone attending is encouraged to view art created by children and teens to honor returning veterans, watch veterans' personal stories online and explore the Library's "Veterans Resources" webpage.

Also available will be a craft for children, music and refreshments. All attendees will receive a free miniature flag.

"The Library is delighted to hold this event to say thank you to our veterans from all branches of the service," said Fresno County Librarian Laurel Prysiazny. "This is an opportunity for the public to show appreciation for the service and sacrifices made by our men and women in uniform."

For further information, please contact the Library's Programming Department at 600-6227.
