Press Release

For Immediate Release
October 9, 2015

WHAT: Fresno County Public Library Launches Beanstack.

WHEN: Tuesday, October 13, 2015

WHERE: All Fresno County Public Library branches

DETAILS: Fresno County Public Library is pleased to announce the upcoming launch of Beanstack, a free online service families with young readers. Beanstack helps families discover books that match each individual child's reading level and interests. Library customers will receive one recommendation each week about a book in the Library's collection selected for each child. All recommended books can be checked out for free at the Library.

In addition to book recommendations, Beanstack provides learning guides on a variety of subjects. These guides include activities for building literacy, fun information, and suggested resources on topics ranging from "Learning Letters" to "Celebrating Hispanic Heritage."

Beanstack will be accessible for free on computers and mobile devices beginning Tuesday, October 13. For more information, please visit the Library's website at www.fresnolibrary.org or call (559) 600-7323 (READ).
