

Linda Aragon
(559) 600-6226

Photo Opportunity

For Immediate Release
March 15, 2015

WHAT: The Big Read: The Maltese Falcon
Featured Events for Week 1 and 2

WHEN: March 15 – March 29, 2015

WHERE: Various Locations (see details below)

DETAILS: Author Talk: Julie Rivett
Saturday, March 21, 1:30 p.m. at Woodward Park Regional Library
Come and meet renowned author and granddaughter of Dashiell Hammett, Julie Rivett, as she shares insights into her legendary grandfather and some of his unpublished work.

1930s Speakeasy
Saturday, March 21, 7:00 p.m. at Fresno City College Library
Come celebrate Dashiell Hammett's The Maltese Falcon in style. The Speakeasy will be a whodunit extravaganza with 1930s music, dance, games and a costume contest. Come dressed as a character from the book or from the era.

Film Noir Discussion
Monday, March 23, 6:30 p.m. at Fig Garden Regional Library
Discussions of the film noir genre lead by Paul Kaser. They will feature clips from some silver screen classics.

Geocaching Game
Log on to the Library's website to play a geocaching game in downtown Fresno. It's a classic treasure hunt, but with a modern take. A smartphone is required to play.

####