Press Release

For Immediate Release
August 29, 2015

WHAT: Fresno County Public Library Announces I Love My Library Month

WHEN: September 1 – 30, 2015

WHERE: All Fresno County Public Library branches.

DETAILS: Fresno County Public Library is pleased to announce September is I Love My Library Month. During the month of September, anyone who signs up for a Fresno County Public Library card will receive incentives such as a sticker, button, or for youth aged 18 years and under, an ice cream coupon redeemable at any area McDonalds. Also for I Love My Library Month, the Library is offering Baby Library Cards. Each child between 0-35 months can choose to receive a bib, a board book or any one of the other available gifts as an incentive to sign up for a Baby Library Card.

Customers are encouraged to tell library staff why they love their library either in person or on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram by using the hashtag: #fresnolibrary. Throughout the month, customers can participate in fun activities such as arts and crafts for adults, teens and children; and numerous storytimes for children. For more information, visit www.fresnolibrary.org or contact your local library branch.
