

Rocky Vang
(559) 600-6274
Lisa Lindsay
(559) 600-6267

Press Release

For Immediate Release
September 9, 2015

WHAT: Author Talk with Margarita Engle

WHEN: Saturday September 12, 2015 at 1:00 PM

WHERE: Central Library
2420 Mariposa Street, Fresno, CA 93721

DETAILS: In honor of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom's 100th anniversary, multiple-award winning author, Margarita Engle will be at the Central Library in downtown Fresno to talk about her long and eventful career in children's literature.

A Cuban-American, she is the first Latina to win a Newbery Honor Award (The Surrender Tree) and has also won the Jane Addams Peace Award, PEN USA Award, Pura Belpré Award, and many others. Her writings often feature Cuban themes and explore that country's rich heritage.

For more information, please visit the Library's website www.fresnolibrary.org or call (559) 600-7323 (READ).

####