Fresno County Public Library Premieres “Our Lives” Video

The Fresno County Public Library (FCPL) is proud to announce the premier showing of “Our Lives”, a video project funded by the federal Library Services Technology Act (LSTA) which is administered by the California State Library.

With FCPL’s assistance, homeless individuals in Fresno County created a documentary video about themselves. The video is intended to increase community awareness of homelessness and to encourage discussion of all related issues.

“Our Lives’ is truly a collaborative community venture because of all the people involved at different levels. The Library is honored to have been a part of this project,” said Laurel Prysiazny, County Librarian.

There will be two free public screenings of “Our Lives”. The first is scheduled for April 10, 2015, 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Fresno, 2672 E Alluvial Ave, Fresno. The second showing will be held on April 14, 2015, 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM at the Community Media Access Collaborative at 1555 Van Ness Ave. Fresno. Parking is free. A discussion will follow the showing.
