Fresno County Public Library Receives Book-To-Action Grant

Fresno County Public Library is proud to announce the receipt of a Book-To-Action grant for the Riverdale Library. Book-To-Action is administered by the California Center for the Book, and is supported by the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the Library Services Technology Act.

The grant is to encourage participants to read a chosen book, discuss the book, and engage in activity. This year's theme is "Wildlife". The Library will have 75 copies of Love, Life, and Elephants: An African Love Story for adults and 75 copies of Owen & Mzee: Language of Friendship for children to read.

Books can be picked up at the Riverdale Library. There will be discussion sessions, led by Fresno Chaffee Zoo and Fresno Wildlife Rescue and Rehabilitation Service, starting on Saturday, May 7 from 11 am to 12 noon for adults; Saturday, May 14 from 11 am to 12 noon for all ages; and Thursday, May 19 from 4 pm to 5 pm for children. On Saturday, June 4 from 11 am to 12 noon, the Fresno Wildlife Rescue and Rehabilitation Service will lead a discussion and provide an activity for all ages.

For more information, please visit our website www.fresnolibrary.org or call the Library at (559) 600 – READ (7323).
