Fresno County Public Library Premieres “Reflections of a Drought”

The Fresno County Public Library (FCPL) proudly announces the upcoming premiere of “Reflections of a Drought”, a video project made in collaboration with California Humanities.

“Reflections of a Drought” showcases Fresno County residents dealing with the devastating impact of scarce water in the heartland of the agricultural capital of the world.

“‘Reflections of a Drought’ offers a look into how crippling a drought is. There is no worse feeling than knowing nothing can be done to offer relief,” said County Librarian Laurel Prysiazny.

There will be three free public screenings of “Reflections of a Drought”. The first is scheduled for 6:30 PM, Wednesday February 3, at the Woodward Park Regional Library, 944 E. Perrin Ave, Fresno. The second showing is at 6:30 PM, Monday February 8, at the Selma Library, 2200 Selma St., Selma. A special guest panel will discuss the film following this showing. The third and final showing is at 6:30 PM, Thursday, February 11, at the Mendota Library, 1246 Belmont Ave, Mendota. Parking is free and refreshments will be provided at all three showings.
